

ICON

Booth 537

tional clinical trials in most therapeutic areas and is one of a small group of organizations with the capacity and expertise to conduct clinical trials on a global basis.

Markets served

ICON has over 3,200 employees operating in 27 countries, providing Phase I-IV Clinical Trials Management; Drug Development Support Services; Data Management and Biostatistics; Central Laboratory; and Central Imaging Services. ICON spans the globe across all seven continents, including North America, South America, Europe, Africa, Middle East, Asia, and Pacific Rim.

Major services

ICON's services include Clinical Trial Monitoring and Management, Biostatistics, Data Management, Medical Affairs, Late Phase Study Services, and IVRS.

Corporate description

ICON is a global provider of development services to the pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and medical device industries. ICON experts have successfully conducted over 2,000 development projects and over 1,500 consulting engagements across 50 countries, enabling clients to reduce their drug development costs in all major therapeutic areas.

ICON specializes in the management, execution and analysis of complex, multina-

DIA Information

ICON is pleased to invite you to our 2006 DIA reception in Philadelphia's beautiful new Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts.

Date: Sunday, June 18; Time: 7:30-11:30 PM.

ICON

212 Church Road
North Wales, PA 19454

TELEPHONE

215-616-3000

FAX

215-616-3095

EMAIL

US: info@iconus.com
Europe: info@iconuk.com

WWW

www.iconclinical.com

NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES

3,100+

DATE FOUNDED

1990